Reasons for opposing the application

My husband and I moved to Waitite Valley from Auckland 17 years ago. We were attracted by the pleasant rural life style. My husband has since died and I live alone but surrounded by wonderful neighbours. What has been a rural haven has the potential to be disrupted if this non complying activity is allowed to go ahead. My sense of security will be gone and I will not feel safe whether in my own home or walking along the road.

Also, if the facility runs into trouble, help from Rotuma is at least 45 mins away.
